

NOTIFICATION ON RECORDING AND PHOTOGRAPHING OF THE EVENT

You are herewith informed that the entire WRC CROATIA RALLY 2022 event is being filmed and photographed. This is a public event, and you are aware that you may be caught in videos and/or on photographs that can be made public in the media, including on Internet and on social networks.

Such videos and/or photographs may contain your personal data, primarily your appearance.

The processor is the organizer of the event WRC Promoter GmbH, Liebherrstrasse 22, 80538 Munich, Germany, who you can always contact regarding the processing of your personal data and to exercise your rights according to the General Data Protection Regulation by e-mail: privacy@wrc.com or phone number: +49 (0) 89 212 669 910.

The legal basis for processing of your personal data, by recording or photographing, is the legitimate interest of the organizer to promote the event. The organizer intends to use videos and/or photographs from the event in any form (for example, print, online, etc.) for the purpose of transmission and promotion of the WRC and further marketing activities.

Photographs and/or videos may be available to other recipients, primarily to related companies of the organizer, controllers contracted by the organizer to assist him in processing (such as cameramen, photographers, marketing agencies, IT support providers, etc.), as well as other business partners of the organizer, the media, legal and other professional advisers of the organizer (for example lawyers), competent authorities in accordance with the law (who can receive and continue to process personal data as independent controllers) and authorized employees of the aforementioned recipients.

In the case of transferring videos and/or photographs containing personal data to recipients in so-called third countries, i.e. in countries outside the European Economic Area, where the level of personal data protection they provide is not equivalent to the one guaranteed in the European Union, the controller will make all reasonable and financially justified efforts to ensure an adequate level of personal data protection also by recipients in such third countries, for example by concluding appropriate Standard Contract Clauses adopted by the European Commission and taking other appropriate technical and / or organizational measures

We will keep videos and/ or photographs and personal data contained in them in perpetuity due to our obligation toward broadcaster and archiving purpose. Given their intended use in the media, including the Internet and especially social networks, you acknowledge and accept that due to the nature of the Internet, such videos and/or photographs may remain available to the public permanently.

You have the right to request access to your personal data, correction, deletion, restriction of processing, to object to the processing and the right to submit a complaint to the Personal Data Protection Agency (www.azop.hr).
